AMERICAN WARSHIP MAKES RECORD TIME

Battleship Kentucky Steams More Than 12,000 Miles At Speed Approaching 13 Knots An Hour

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.] from Hongkong to New York, through New York, May 23.—The battleship Kentucky arrived today, having made the world's record long distance run for a warship. She made the long trip

GETS IN STAY HERE

Columbian Arrives at Hootalinqua

Whitehorse, May 23.—The Columbian arrived at Hootalinqua at 6 o'clock this morning.

The Canadian passed Stewart river, coming up stream at 1:30 p. m., yesterday.

Will Make Channel

The La France left Whitehorse for Upper La Barge at 9:30 o'clock this morning to stake the channel and to report on the condition of the river.

Fire Racers to Practice

It is the intention of the members of the Skagway hose racing team to practice each day until the Douglas tournament, which will take place June 5 and 6. Skagway expects to send a fast team to compete in these races.

Suits to order at from $18 up at the American Tailors.

Clayson & Co. carry the largest stock of overcoats in town.

The lakes are still impassable. The latest information from Lake La Barge is that while the ice is gradually breaking up around the edges of the lake, and running out at the lower end, the channel is still filled with ice, and it will probably be a week before boats will leave Whitehorse for Dawson.

The lakes to Atlin are still impassable, but they will probably break up earlier than La Barge.
